

RIDGE FIRE ACADEMY

40 HOUR TACTICS & STRATEGY I FFP1810

This course is designed to cover basic factors involved in coping with an emergency scene, and determining the best use of available resources in protecting lives and property. It emphasizes the changing nature of an emergency situation, and the ways in which the fire officer can evaluate the effectiveness of his or her proposed Incident Action Plan. Students will be involved with mandatory participation with the concepts of "active learning" and team learning concepts. The instructor will facilitate the learning by bringing together the students with their combined job related experiences, ideas and solutions.
